

Do we invest enough?

An analysis of the current state of philanthropic funding for sex worker rights. New evidence from 229 grants (2013), 56 funders and 183 survey responses worldwide.

Who funds

€8 MILLION

for sex worker rights per year by 56 foundations and other non-governmental grantmakers

Just 5 foundations give 56% of the €:

- Open Society Foundations
- Ford Foundation
- American Jewish World Service
- Red Umbrella Fund
- Mama Cash

Public foundations give 70% of the grants

Who's funded

157 organisations working on sex worker rights in 53 countries

75% have budgets < €100 000

47% are sex worker-led

Number of grants and percent of € worldwide

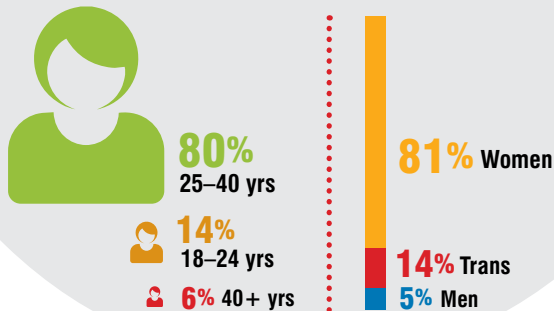

What's funded

Most difficult to get € for:

- Policy & advocacy
- Legal services
- Organisational development

Sex workers reached

“The political struggle against criminalisation, the battle against violence done to us, the work of building organisational structures to link us and support us better — these are long-term efforts that need sustained steady financing.”

Sex worker rights organisation participating in the survey

Read the full report here:
www.redumbrellafund.org/report

mama cash
(she changes the world)

red umbrella fund

OPEN SOCIETY FOUNDATIONS